Â

July 16, 17 and 18, Ben Herman and Mason Ryan travelled to Sheridan Shores Yacht Club (just north of Chicago) to compete in the 2011 Club 420 National Championships.Â The team had a great first day with a win in the first race. The second day of racing saw Herman / Ryan score a 5, 10, 14 and 5.Â Leaving them tied for 2nd place with 35 points after 5 races.Â Day 3 looked as if the weather might keep the competitors off the water but cleared enough for the competitors to get 2 races in (race 6 and race 7) and secure a 6th race which enabled competitors to be able to discard their worst race.Â Herman / Ryan scored a 10 and 18 on the 3rd and last day of racing using their last race as their discard, and securing their 2nd place finish overall out of the 71 boats competing.
